

3 JUDGES TIE UP THE RESALES ACT

3 Federal Jurists Act
On Petition of Ohio
Bond Purchasers.

INJUNCTION IS ISSUED

Treasurers Prevented From
Re-Selling Delinquent
Properties Next Week.

By The Associated Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.—An order restraining county treasurers from holding next Monday sales of property delinquent in the payment of special taxes was granted here today by John H. Cotteral and Robert L. Williams, United States district judges, and William C. Hook, United States circuit judge. Under the order, sales of property delinquent in the payment of general taxes may be held.

The judges declared that the holding of sales would result in infringement of the rights of bondholders.

The suit was brought by Otto & Co., a bonding firm of Cleveland, Ohio. The company holds bonds of Oklahoma City, Muskogee, Sapulpa, Edna, Afton, Guthrie, El Reno and Shawnee.

GUARDSMEN DEMOBILIZED.
Adjutant-General Barrett Says All
Companies Now
Home.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.—According to a message from Brig. Gen. Charles P. Barrett, adjutant general, at McAlester, the remaining members of the Oklahoma national guard were withdrawn from the coal strike region yesterday and last night. Company B, Ardmore, and Company D, Tahlequah, of the Second regiment, and Company E, El Reno, and Company F, Oklahoma City, separate battalions, entrained yesterday afternoon for their home stations and Supply Machine Gun company and Supply Machine Gun company, both of which are Oklahoma City units, entrained last night. The message stated also that no work was being done in the coal region except at the national guard was mobilized November 1 and sent to the coal strike region to afford protection to any miners who desired to return to work.

ROAD BONDS UNSOLD

Creek County Commissioners Disappointed When Bids Contained No Premium.

Special to The World.
SAFAPULPA, Nov. 20.—The $1,000,000 road bonds that the voters of Creek county recently voted are still unsold.

The commissioners met yesterday to open the three bids, but as they were only for par, no action was taken, the board deciding to hold the time for closing open another day. This action was needless for no additional bids came in today. The bidders were Oklahoma City bankers.

The commissioners were greatly disappointed having accepted the recommendations of an advisory committee that no bids should be accepted unless it was for par, plus accrued interest, or possibly a premium.

JOPLIN FINANCIER DEAD

Heart Failure Claims W. R. Kane,
Ex-Wagoner Resident.

Special to The World.
WAGONER, Nov. 20.—W. R. Kane, a prominent Joplin capitalist, died here at the Majestic hotel this morning from heart failure. With Mrs. Kane he came in from Joplin last evening to close up some business here, having recently sold the larger part of his realty holdings to local capitalists. The body was taken to Joplin tonight, where the family lives. He was 67 years old, and at one time was Wagoner's leading financial man. For the past 12 years he had been living at Joplin, where he was heavily interested in big financial affairs. A wife and two sons survive.

Continuation of U. S.
Control Schedule.

Special to The World.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.—The corporation commission has requested the public utilities commissions of Kansas, Missouri and Arkansas to participate in a conference with the Oklahoma commission relative to future policy in regard to rates to be charged by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company. A reply was received from the Kansas commission yesterday agreeing to meet with the other utility commissions. The date and place of the meeting will be fixed after the sentiment of the Missouri and Arkansas commissions has been ascertained.

Smart overcoats for young men

YOUNG fellows in this day and age know more about style than ever before. They recognize that style is the most important part of their clothes; that the busy world can't stop to investigate them, but judges them by the clothes they wear. That is why the live young men of Tulsa come here for clothes, season after season.

THERE'S never any question about the style of Madansky clothes. It is as much a part of them as the quality and fine workmanship. The new overcoats are excellent examples. They're here in the latest, smartest models of the season. Single or double breasted, plain, half or full belts, storm, self, satin or full collars. The fabrics and shades show very plainly that the war is ended. See the coats here today $35 and up.

Young men's suits

BECAUSE of our close connection with Stratford, the liveliest young men's house in America, we get almost daily shipments of the late ideas in suits. If you haven't been here this week, there's some new ones you ought to see. $35, $40, $45, $50 up.

Of Course They Are

IT IS declared by some manufacturers that their Stoves and Ranges are "cheaper" than "Charter Oaks."

Some of them are so "cheap" that you also escape the cost of new fire-box linings—the rest of the stove being cracked, warped and made useless before the fire-box needs repairs.

All really good articles, all works of taste and merit must bear a price in proportion to the skill, time, material and expense attending their invention and manufacture. In the construction of an article which is put to such hard use as cooking or heating apparatus, it is particularly necessary to use only the best and plenty of it.

This WE do.

Our motto is not how CHEAP but how GOOD we can make Charter Oaks.
